

What do men really find attractive in women? – Tim and his honest answer to this question

Here we go, another article with a male writer talking about how inner beauty is more important than outer beauty. “Men want a good personality over a good pair of lady lumps!”

Sorry to disappoint you ladies, but not today. I only do honesty.

You want to attract a man, you have to be attractive! It's simple logic. By definition, attraction in it's simplest form is a first impression; instinctual and purely a physical judgment. If you're shopping for bananas, do you take the ripe banana or the brown bruised banana?... Now before you react, I'm not calling, or insinuating, that anyone is a undesirable bruised banana simply based on how someone looks. Everyone has something to offer and that is what makes us 'DESIRABLE'... but let's not joke each other and pretend the world is perfect. Popular culture will have you believe that 'attraction' and 'desire' are the same thing... but they are not even close... If you are standing next to a Victoria's secret model, then congratulations, you are now invisible. You're now a superhero, go you!

I know it's hard, and yes, you can't change your genetics. You can't change the past and you can't change plain-old bad luck. Attraction for men, biologically, is based on your physical appearance, and although that may vary for personal preference, the general consensus of beauty is fairly universal. You either have it, or you don't. If you aren't sure if you're pretty or not, then you already know the answer. This is harsh but this is the truth.

HOWEVER... all hope is not lost! Do not despair or give up! This is why you 'Ask Tim' and this is why I get paid the big bucks. Physical appearance means NOTHING when it comes to REAL, NORMAL, EVERYDAY people! Life is nothing like the movies or Television! Popular culture needs you to believe that celebrities, actors, musicians and the like, are better version of real people. That they are more beautiful or more importantly, living an 'easier' life. If you compare yourself to others, and doubt your desirability, then you have already lost the competitive edge; and therefore by simple logic, are less attractive than your 'competitor'. The dating game is nothing more than a animalistic primal dance of bright colors and loud screams. Attraction will get you noticed first, but just because the early bird gets the worm, doesn't mean that every other bird is starving!

So.... the top three things that a man will find most desirable. Starting with the most important!

1. Can you have a conversation?!

Approaching a girl is hard. It takes a lot of confidence, practice and sheer optimism. If a guy approaches you, that you like, then make an effort to have a conversation! Even if the guy is a dud, it's still good to practice until you find the right guy. There is nothing worse than when I've approached someone, and after asking,

Tim: Hey, how's your night going?

Girl: Oh Hey, yeah, good thanks, you?

Tim: I'm great, had a few beers and feel relaxed after a long day. Do you come here often?

Girl: Yeah... a bit... you?

Tim: Yeah I do actually. Really like the music and vibe. Good ambiance. Are you here with friends; having a big night?

Girl: Yeah, a few, what about you?

Tim: Just a few guys from work. Not sure where the night will take me yet. Keeping my options open.

Girl: Oh nice. Nice. Yeah. um. Sips drink

Tim: Cool... Cool... long awkward silence Talk later then...

No matter what you look like, that example right there will kill any guys mojo. It's done. It's over. He's not coming back. Pack your backs and call an Uber... Of course you may be nervous too and even too shy to ask him meaningful questions but just the act of trying will make you ten times more desirable. Even if you feel like you are making a fool of yourself, it's better than not offering anything to the conversation.

A boy will like you for how you look; a man will love you for how you make him feel.

2. Common interests and related humour

Let's try again.

Tim: Hey, How's it going, I'm Tim.

Girl: Notices funny Game of thrones T-Shirt Ahh excuse me, I'm Daenerys, Mother of Dragons, please address me by my formal title. with playful smile

Tim: My apologies Queen, let me buy you another mug of ale.

Fast forward

Girl: Do you have protection?

It's important to understand that men are just as vulnerable to social expectations and they too suffer from the feeling of inadequacy. If you have realistic expectations about the man you want to meet, then that man is just as nervous about being perceived as 'attractive' as you are. He hasn't nor will rarely approach the most attractive girl at the bar. Every guy knows that that is a suicide mission because she will reject you... and reject you hard... He is approaching you, because A) you seem approachable, meaning yes, in truth, in what he believes is his 'social range' but more importantly B) the most attractive girl within his range... Simply by approaching you, he has acknowledged that he finds you ATTRACTIVE! You didn't have to do anything!!!

3. Know what you want before the night even begins!

The majority of men hate wasting time. When I ask, what do you want for dinner and you reply... "ahhh, I don't know, what do you want?", I am dying inside from frustration. Men are simple creatures with unnecessarily complex brains. We are capable of great things, but most of the time, just want to eat, (work), play and sleep. For that, you need to know what you want before you go out. If you are just looking for a no-strings hook up, then act like you want a no strings hook up. If you are looking to find a future, meaningful relationship, then act like you are looking for a meaningful relationship. Social expectation dictates that a man approaches, or makes the first move, but there is nothing sexier than a woman who knows what she wants. That doesn't mean you tell a guy what to do and when to do it. It means you act with conviction and congruence in your words and actions. If you want a real connection, ask questions that are both socially appropriate and meaningful.

Tim: Yeah I do actually. Really like the music and vibe. Good ambiance. Are you here with friends; having a big night?

Girl: Me too, I really like Jazz. Especially the saxophone. Something about the sound is just so smooth and calming. Oh and my friend is just at the bar.

Tim: Haha, there is my friend, at the bar also. I know what you mean. It has such a soulful rhythm. Easy to move to. Do you play any instruments yourself?

Girl: Haha I tried the piano but I'm not very good.

fast forward

Tim: Maybe I can get your number, and we could check out a Jazz Gig sometime?

The last words...

Attraction is important, that's undeniable, but it will only get you so far. If the only reason you are with someone is 'attraction', then that relationship will never last. Be desirable because you show genuine interest in the other person. Make them feel wanted and the rest will fall into place.
